SHE DROPPED DEAD !

Mrs. Sarah Waddell Drops Dead
Last Night.

Heart Disease the Cause of the Unfortunate Circumstance.

HUSBAND AND TWO CHILDREN LEFT

People Who Come and Go—Brief Briefs of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

Last evening, Mrs. Sarah Waddell returned to her home on Cobb street, and while there alone, dropped dead. She was a woman 38 years of age and leaves a husband and two daughters, they being employed in the Duke factory.

Dr. J. A. Smith had been her attending physician. Mrs. Waddell, by those who knew her, was unusually esteemed—was a kind mother and loving wife. The remains will be interred in the Durham cemetery this afternoon.

HE IS BETTER.

Mr. Ben Lyon's Condition Is Much Improved This Afternoon.

A telephone message to THE GLOBE at 3:30 this afternoon conveys the gratifying information that Mr. Ben Lyon, who is suffering with an attack of typhoid fever, is much improved. This information is cheerful and will be good news to all in Durham.

No flowery rhetoric can tell the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla as well as the cures accomplished by this excellent medicine.

Handkerchiefs for the Holiday.

The simple announcement of handkerchiefs, ordinarily speaking has no special significance, but this is an exceptional announcement and worthy of special notice. Such an immense assortment, and such an infinite variety of styles has never been equalled by us. No attempt at describing the stock would do it justice. The assortment is vast and bewildering, handsome, hand embroidered china silk handkerchiefs at 19 cents each, would be considered cheap at 35 or 40 cents.

Ladies pure linen hand embroidered initial handkerchiefs at 15 cents worth 25.

By all means see our magnificent display of handkerchiefs before purchasing.

Gus—Why, hello, Phil, what're you doin with that suit of armor on?
Phil—I'm goin to sing "Comrades" to-night at a concert!—Truth.

IT WAS LACK OF VOTES.

But Mr. Furches Says Fraud Defeated the Republicans.

WINSTON, Dec. 15.—D. M. Furches, late republican candidate for governor, comes out in a card in the Winston Republican to day giving his views as to the cause of the republican defeat at the last election in North Carolina. Among other things he says: "The true theory of the republican defeat was fraud. There was no limit to this in the large negro counties. I have a letter from the postmaster at Halifax since the election, saying if the election had been fair and fairly counted I would have gotten 2,500 majority in that county. I hardly have a doubt but we were cheated out of at least 4,000 votes in that county alone and it was as bad in Edgecombe, New Hanover and other counties. There is nothing that can beat a count."

It is learned to-day from a private source that Thomas Settle has not received his certificate yet from the state returning board as congressman-elect from the fifth district. He has written to Governor Holt for it but the governor replied he could not issue the certificate until Settle resigned the solicitorship.

R. A. Lindsay, late of No 3 Engine Company, Baltimore City Fire Department says that the members of his company have used Salvation Oil in cases of sprains and soreness with most gratifying results. It is the best. Only 25 cts.

The Erwin Cotton Mills Have Twenty Already Erected.

THAT TO BE A LIVELY PLACE SOON

Go Take a Stroll Out That Way for a Little Fun, and for a Little Bit More Business.

A GLOBE man to day visited the Erwin Cotton mills and took a look at a scene which means much to Durham.

And that is not only the completion of the cotton mills—the largest South—but the thirty elegant four and six room cottages to be erected there.

Over twenty of them are already up and painted. Not only painted, but people are living in them, and those people are to become operatives.

The business out in that end of town is going along at a rushing rate—and there is no doubt about results.

Well, Durham is always in it—and she gets into it big.
